

Dear Teacher,

We are gathering stories and memories from all of the wonderful teachers who are guiding our child on their academic path.

We will give this book to our child on the day they graduate high school and sets out on their own journey in life.

Please pick any page in this book and share a special story, memory, or something you will remember about them.

Don't forget the year, grade, school, and your name.

Thank you so much for helping us remind our child how loved they are.

Dear Teacher,

We are gathering stories and memories from all of the wonderful teachers who are guiding our daughter on her academic path.

We will give this book to her on the day she graduates high school and sets out on her own journey in life.

Please pick any page in this book and share a special story, memory, or something you will remember about her.

Don't forget the year, grade, school, and your name.

Thank you so much for helping us remind her how loved she is.

Dear Teacher,

We are gathering stories and memories from all of the wonderful teachers who are guiding our son on his academic path.

We will give this book to him on the day he graduates high school and sets out on his own journey in life.

Please pick any page in this book and share a special story, memory, or something you will remember about him.

Don't forget the year, grade, school, and your name.

Thank you so much for helping us remind him how loved he is.